

Stephen Clugston

Stephen Clugston

Senior Associate, PLN Lawyers

Areas of Expertise

Stephen Clugston is a corporate and commercial lawyer at PLN.

Though originally from Australia, Stephen grew up and lived in India, Switzerland, and the United States.

Stephen specialises in mergers and acquisitions, banking and finance, and foreign investment law and regulation generally. Stephen also assists in commercial dispute resolution.

Experience

Stephen has experience providing high level corporate, commercial, financing, and regulatory advice and assistance to clients across the telecommunications, banking and finance, and energy and resources sectors, including international IT and telecommunications corporations, major financial institutions, and oil and petroleum companies.

Qualifications

Bachelor of Laws, University of New South Wales, Australia

Master of International Law, University of Sydney, Australia

Bachelor of Science in Psychology and French, Davidson College, USA

Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice, College of Law, Australia

Admissions and Memberships

Admitted to the Supreme Court of New South Wales, Australia

Member of the Law Society of New South Wales, Australia

International Trade Law Administrator, Young Lawyers of NSW International Law Committee

Member of the International Law Association, Australian Branch

Languages

English, French, some Spanish.

Contact

s.clugston@pln.com.au